

October 24, 2011

Chinatown BID Interim Board Nomination

Selection Criteria

1. Individuals must be in support of the mission of the Chinatown Business Improvement District (BID).
2. Individuals must be ready, willing and able to make contribution to achieve the BID's mission and its effective governance.
3. Individuals must be ready, willing and able to actively serve on the Board and its committees and attend its official functions.
4. Individuals have demonstrated leadership abilities and communication skills.

Interim Board Nomination Process

1. A Nomination Committee of 7 volunteers was approved by the BID Steering Committee.
2. a) Nomination Committee welcomes qualified and interested parties to apply.

b) In addition to City Council's invitation, the Nomination Committee posts notice and application on websites to solicit individual applicants for consideration to be nominated to the Interim Board.

c) Nomination Committee also asks Steering Committee members to provide additional individual recommendations.
3. Nomination Committee evaluates applicants based on the above 4 criteria, and recommends a slate of Interim Board of Directors.
4. Nomination Committee presents slate to Steering Committee for approval.